Audio Visual Services Guide

The Five-Diamond Difference Five-Diamond is not an in-house audiovisual company; we are an audiovisual solution that travels with companies to all of their events anywhere. We work with you one on one, make sure your shows look exactly the way you want them to, and then you never have to worry about explaining your needs to anyone else. We travel with you but work for you. Your events will impress everyone at every location because your show isn't changing hands.

Five-Diamond takes the guess work out of your company's events and meetings and puts the control back in you the meeting planner's hands where it should be.

Value

- * 30%-50% savings off of A/V bottom line
- * Convenient "one-stop-shop" for meeting and event planners
- * Quality Assurance dealing with one company as opposed to multiple entities
- * One on one personal interaction/attention to your company's specific A/V event needs
- * Lowest price guarantee
- * Only the finest Five-Diamond three-tier trained/certified audiovisual directors and technicians
- * Limitless and state-of-the-art audiovisual and business solution inventory and resources
- * No contractual obligation or exclusivity -
